

NSBA's purpose is to ensure every student has access to excellent and equitable public education governed by high performing school board leaders and supported by the community.

NSBA, a non-partisan association, leads through working with members, affiliates, and stakeholders to advocate for high quality public education and school board governance with the executive, legislative, and judicial branches.

a) Association Members shall be state associations of school boards which have been approved for membership by the Delegate Assembly. State associations include associations of public school boards, the public board of education of those states which have only a single board of education, and the boards of the District of Columbia and of the territories of the United States. As hereinafter used in the Constitution and Bylaws, "school board" includes not only members of state associations, but also the public board of education of those states which have only a single board of education, and the boards of the District of Columbia and of the territories of the United States.

(b) Local school boards in those states where the state association is not a member in good standing of NSBA may access membership services through National Connection, CUBE, or another mechanism developed by the Board of Directors.

Applications for new or reinstated Association Membership shall be submitted to the Board of Directors in a form and accompanied by supporting documents as the Board of Directors may determine.

Any Association Member whose dues are not paid by October 1 in any given year shall be suspended and all privileges of membership suspended except as hereinafter provided. Members suspended for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by the Board of Directors at any time upon payment of the current year's dues. The Board of Directors shall adopt a policy defining the privileges of membership.

An Association Membership may be terminated only upon the recommendation adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors present at a Directors' meeting at which the reasons for termination are considered and when such recommendation is ratified by a majority of the Delegate Assembly present and voting.

- (d) May adopt Beliefs and Resolutions pertinent to the purposes and objectives of the Association.
- (e) May adopt amendments to this Constitution and Bylaws as herein provided.
- (f) May delegate to the Board of Directors any of its powers except those of the election of elective officers and directors of the Board of Directors, the adoption of amendments to this Constitution and Bylaws, the termination of Association Memberships, and the adoption of Beliefs and Resolutions of the Association.

- (a) The Delegate Assembly shall consist of voting delegates who shall be entitled to one vote each and delegates ex officio entitled to the right of expression but no vote.
- (b) Each delegate and alternate shall be a school board member or an officer of an Association Member and shall not be employed as staff by an Association Member.
- (c) Each State Association Member shall designate two voting delegates for a term of one year, and additional voting delegates to serve a term of one year on the basis of the following formula:

and the President of the Association (the "President") the names of their voting delegates and alternates before the designated deadline for such certification.

(a) The Delegate Assembly shall hold at least one meeting annually by the conclusion of the annual conference.

(b) The Delegate Assembly may hold additional meetings on reasonable notice, upon call of the President or by majority of the Board of Directors at such places as the President or Board of Directors may designate. Any seven (7) or more Association Members, but not more than three (3) from any one Region, may petition for additional meetings of the Delegate Assembly. If two-thirds or more of the Association Members concur with the call for an additional meeting as set forth in the petition, the President shall schedule the meeting of the Delegate Assembly.

(c) The agenda for meetings of the Delegate Assembly shall be prepared by the Board of Directors or its designee.

(d) Copies of the agenda shall be distributed by the NSBA Executive Director to each voting delegate and alternate delegate with the Delegate Assembly Handbook at least 30 calendar days before the date of such meeting of the Delegate Assembly.

(c) The Beliefs and Resolutions Committee shall hold an annual meeting where the committee can be assured adequate staff support. During the annual meeting, the committee shall consider all proposed Beliefs and Resolutions submitted in accordance with the provisions of Article V Sections 9(a) and 10(a-c) of the NSBA Constitution and Bylaws; and may consider any other proposed resolutions that are received prior to its meeting or developed at the annual meeting.

(d) The President may designate subcommittees with jurisdiction over specific subject matter areas included in the policies and resolutions to meet during the course of the annual meeting and provide recommendations to the committee.

(e) The committee's written report shall be distributed to the members of the Delegate Assembly no later than 30 calendar days in advance of the first business session of the Delegate Assembly. The report shall include all proposals submitted in accordance with the provisions of Article V Sections 9(a) and 10(a-c) of the NSBA Constitution and Bylaws, the original rationale submitted by the State Association member, NSBA Board of Directors, governing bodies of the regions, or by delegates to the Delegate Assembly, and a statement of the Beliefs and Resolutions committee recommendation of either "do adopt" or "do not adopt" on the proposed resolution. The Beliefs and Resolutions committee shall not modify a proposal without consent of the submitting entity or prevent a proposal from being presented to the delegate assembly for consideration. Should a proposal be amended or rejected by the committee, the original proposer, together with the committee's recommendations, shall be submitted to the Delegate Assembly for action. A majority vote of delegates present and voting may cause a proposal to be considered by the delegate assembly despite a "do not adopt" recommendation. In its written report, the committee shall separate beliefs and resolutions according to those two categories of committee recommendations.

(f) In order that all beliefs and resolutions conform to the NSBA Beliefs and Resolution format, formatting changes may be made in proposed beliefs and resolutions if they do not change the intent of the original motion and the changes to the belief or resolution are approved by the submitting organization.

(c) Proposed Beliefs and changes in the Beliefs which are not submitted as provided for in this section as it shall deem advisable; shall hire and direct the NSBA Executive Director and may, in the execution of its powers, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary.

The Board of Directors shall be composed

Urban Boards of Education, chair of the National Black Council of School Board Members, chair of the National Hispanic Council of School Board Members, chair of the National American Indian/Alaska Native School Boards Members, or representative of OSAED shall in no event hold the seat for longer than two consecutive years, regardless of the length of the person's term(s) as chair of the NSBA Council of Urban Boards of Education, chair of the National Black Council of School Board Members, chair of the National Hispanic Council of School Board Members, chair of the National American Indian/Alaska Native Council of School Board Members, or representative of OSAED. However, a person filling an unexpired said chair's

School Board Members, or chair of the National American Indian/Alaska Native Council of School Board Members shall be filled with the bylaws of the particular council.

(c) Vacancies on the Board of Directors among the nine directorships elected by their respective regions shall be filled by appointment of the respective region's nominating committee as prescribed in the respective region bylaws. Such appointment shall be effective only through the unexpired term of that office. The members of the regional nominating committee may participate in any meeting by conference telephone call or by other electronic means, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

(d) If the Immediate Past President is declared vacant, the Board of Directors shall elect to the Executive Committee an additional member from the membership of the Board of Directors, and the President shall serve as ex officio chair of the Nominating Committee.

Notwithstanding any provision in any governing document of NSBA, including the Constitution and Bylaws, or that of any of NSBA's councils, caucuses, regions or other constituent groups to the contrary, the Board of Directors may suspend, upon a vote of three-quarters of the Board of Directors of those members currently serving, governance provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws for a period not to exceed six months if emergency circumstances so require. Before any vote to suspend under this provision, the Board shall:

(a) Determine whether emergency circumstances exist;

(b) Notify state association members in writing explaining the basis for a finding that emergency circumstances exist, the governance provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws to be suspended, and the end date of such suspension, which shall not exceed six months from the date of the statement; and

(c) Obtain the written consent of at least two-thirds of state association members in good standing.

(a) Any member of the Board of Directors may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors for cause at any meeting provided reasonable notice has been given to the member.

(b) The Board shall adopt policy defining cause, and shall provide for reasonable notice and response for the member who is the subject of the removal action.

There shall be an Executive Committee which (a)4 (te) (e)-1 (e)-1 (bj)4 (te) (e)-1 (e)-1 (bjth)10 c anic-3 m ()Jc-3a without voting rights. Each voting member of the Executive Committee, as members of the Board of Directors, shall satisfy the membership requirements found in Article VI of the NSBA Constitution and Bylaws.

The term of each officer member of the Executive Committee shall be one (1) year, beginning on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December.

Section 3.

It shall be the duty of the President-Elect to perform the duties of the President in the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's inability or refusal to act. The President-Elect when thus acting shall have the powers of and be subject to all restrictions placed upon the President. The President-Elect shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the President or the Board of Directors and automatically becomes President at the close of the next Annual Meeting of the Association.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall chair the Budget and Finance Committee and Audit Committee, and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary-Treasurer, and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the President or by the Board of Directors.

(a) A National Nominating Committee for the nomination of officers of the Association shall be comprised as follows. Each of the Regions shall, according to regional bylaws, elect two qualified school board members and two alternates to serve on the National Nominating Committee for the following year. One member from each of the Regions shall be named by the President from a list composed of one nominee

- (a) Recommendations for nominees for NSBA officers must be submitted to the National Nominating Committee by registered mail, certified mail, or other method requiring registration and signature of receipt and postmarked, or if by electronic mail, received by NSBA no later than December 1. Recommendations may only be submitted by State Association Members or by official action of a Region.
- (b) The National Nominating Committee shall meet at least 30 calendar days prior to the Delegate

(b) The Executive Director is authorized to hire, supervise and discharge such personnel as deemed necessary for Association operations and goals.

The fiscal and dues year of the Association shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

The Executive Committee shall recommend a budget to the Board of Directors each fiscal year.

No member of the Board of Directors acting in the capacity of an officer or director shall receive compensation for services rendered, except that officers may receive such stipends as the Board of Directors shall authorize. Travel expenses personally incurred by Board members in attending to the business of the Association shall be paid by the Association, in accordance with rules and procedures adopted by the Board.

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution and Bylaws, the Executive Committee, with approval of the Board of Directors, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into contracts and to execute or draw any instruments on behalf of the Association.

No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Association, and no negotiable paper other than checks shall be issued in its name, unless and except as authorized by the Board of Directors

(a) All funds of the Association shall be deposited to the credit of the Association in such depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

(b) All funds of the Association, except for investment accounts, shall be in depositories covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The executive body of each Council shall, through its chair, administer the business of the Council and be responsible for its programs, progress, activities, and shall establish rules, regulations and charges for the conduct of its meetings, provided that actions of the Council conform to the policies and rules established by the Board of Directors.

(a) The Board of Directors may determine such fees and charges which may be required to operate and provide services for each Council and its participants through the Association's staff and facilities.

(b) Each Council may establish rules regarding the maintenance of a registration, admission or other charge therefore regarding the meetings and individual activities of the Council, provided that all such rules, charges and policies be in conformance with the policies and rules of the Board of Directors and that the amount of such charges shall be subject to approval of the Board of Directors.

(c) All funds relating to the operation and activity of each Council shall be administered through the general funds of the Association and shall be governed by the provisions for the fiscal policy of the Association as contained in this Constitution and Bylaws, and as may be determined by the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee.

Each Council may establish meetings and program activities, be in conformance with the policies and subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.
